D' An agrecable and healthy Recreation in the To An agreeable and healthy Recreation in the Afternoon.—No pleasanter or more attractive jauntacas be made at this season of the year, than by taking a trip to Hoboken and a walk along the shady and picturesque banks on the margin of the river As an additional inducement this summer it is generally admitted that the walks and grounds of this charming spot are now more beautiful than ever. Access is rendered easy from different parts of the city by the flarchy, Canal, and Christopher street Ferries, the boats on which have been newly and comfortably refitted. In the evening the Canalstreet Ferry Boat runs until ten o' lock from Hoboken. jy10 6wis:

T Remarkable Cure of Pulmonary Consumption.—Dr. Alleo, Dear Sir: If the writing this letter, which you are at liberty to publish, I can induce one solitary individual to take your most excellent Balsam of Horetound, Liver yout and Pleurisy Root, I most excellent Balsam of Horehound, Liver vort and Pleurisy Root, I ball feel satisfied, especially if that individual derives as much benefit from it as I have. For two years previous to taking your Balsam, I had suffered almost every thing. I had a constant pain in my side, met distressing fits of coughing, occasionally raising blood, and for the last year large quarities of matter. I had become so emaciated but only weighed 103 pounds—my usual weight when in health was 100. When I commenced taking your medicine my case was looked toon as hopeless by all my friends. Thenks to an overruling Provideze, your Balsam has wrought on me a complete cure, as I am this day a living witness.

NEW-YORK, June 2d, 1841.—Dear Sig.—Allow me in this manner to present to you my graciful thanks for the bene fit whick I have received at your hands by the use of a medicine known as "Vegetable Carminancia," for by your medicine, from a state of excessive debility, prostration of strength, loss of appetite, dejected spirits, and other symptoms strongly bordering on pulmonary affection, I have been restored to apparently sound health. It is really astonishing that it has produced such a difference in my feelings—my strength is restored, I am as victorous and active as even, my appetite is voracious, my spirits are buoyant, and, in short, I am not laboring any longer in what is called a delicate state of health.

I do sincerely believe, through my own experience, that any person who may be affected as above described, may find a radical cure son who may be affected as above described, may find a radical cure son who may be affected as above described, may find a radical cure son who may be affected as above described, may find a radical cure son who may be affected as above described, may find a radical cure son who may be affected as above described, may find a radical cure son who may be affected as above described, may find a radical cure son who may be affected as above described, may find a radical cure to the consumption in the first, or carly in the second stages, not constitute to call and the order of the sufference of the sufference of the sum of the su

CITY HOTEL.—The Public are informed that the above named spacious and popular establishment will be continued as usual. The interior has been recently repaired, and the parfors and many of the rooms newly furnished. The City Hotel is one of the very few Hotels in his city in which the entire leaver floor is occupied for the purposes of the establishment; it has a bur, reading, diving, lee ping rooms and parlor on the first floor. The convenience of its location being near the centre of the business part of the city, and all the principal steembest and radional hadings, with spacious and pleasure parlors on the first floor, on Broadway, the principal thorough faire of the city, make it an equally desi able situation for zen of business, and for families or single gentlemen travelling for pleasure.

The travelling public are assured that this Hotel shall be so conducted as not to be excelled by any other establishment in this country. With cleanliness, and good, attentive waiters, a good table, choice wines and loquies, and agencial desire to please, the proprietor hopes he may be favored with a share of the public patronage.

REALTTERS.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.

Hast heard of the grandest discovery yet made,
For improving the fairest of Dame Nature's works?
All others for aye it has cast in the shade,
Not even excepting those used by the Turks;
Its name." Eac no Braure: "wirtues without number,
Distill'd from the rarest and choicest of flowers;
-Produced in delectable climes where no slumber, Is permitted their growth by the sweet vernal showers.

How many a maid who was erst, heavy hearted,—
Beyond consolation at beauty's decline;
To whose soul-beaming eyes the hot tears have oft started,
At thoughts of lost charms that were once called divine;
Has returned to "Goukato" their warm thanks to bestow,
For aid thus afforded in their greatest need;
To show their sweet faces in health's perfect glow,
And grouping him above all their dear "friend indeed."
